Remarks: The Director read this over the weekend and I informed him that I had released it for use by other office heads in presenting notification of membership in the Career Staff. I also informed Mr. Dulles that the only change you had made was that portion in the last paragraph. I want to congratulate all of you here who have been working so hard on this

Mr. Kirkpatrick, [REDACTED] and others,"
 to leave out personalities and congratulate all people who had been working on the program. He agreed with this and stated he would have no objection to his comments being used in anything we might send to our foreign stations on the career service program.

MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT:

Remarks by the DCI at the Ceremony
on 27 April 1955.

1. Attached is an original with one copy of Mr. Dulles' - and Mr. Kirkpatrick's - remarks which they made at the ceremony inaugurating the Career Staff on 27 April. There is also attached another copy of Mr. Dulles' remarks only. A third copy of the full text has been sent to Mr. Kirkpatrick for his information.

2. It would be much appreciated if the text of these remarks could be released in their present form for use in Washington by the Heads of Operating Components. Many of these senior officials who were present at the ceremony wish to use the Director's remarks during the ceremonies which they plan to conduct in their separate organizations (according to Notice [REDACTED] which also is attached).

As soon as I have your release of the clear text, I will prepare a field notice which the Director may or may not wish to personally approve prior to its issuance.

4. I have all the other copies which have been prepared under control in my Office and will hold them until I hear from you.

Signed
